Mr. K. T. Mathew.—Was it not by the Secretary who was asked by the Registrar to hand over charge to the Union Secretary ?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—The Secretary has always got important functions.

Mr. K. T. Mathew.—Was it not tantamount to disobeying the Registrar's order ? Has the Registrar taken any action ?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I shall explain that. In cancelling a society there is no vindictiveness on the part of the department. The department was compelled to cancel the society because the society was worked badly. The moment they came to an amicable settlement at a general body meeting why should the Registrar pursue the course of his own action? This question does not arise as a matter of fact.

Mr. K. T. Mathew.—Was not in the meantime many of the members deprived of the privilege of voting; that is the question?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—They might have been deprived of the privilege of voting, because they have borrowed and not repaid.

Mr. K. T. Mathew.—Was it not the result of not executing the orders?

President.—That question has been asked and already answered.

Mr. K. T. Mathew.—What is the percentage of members who agreed to the amicable settlement?

Rama Varmha Tampuran.—I want notice.
